

Awareness Week

Interview

The object of this interview is to find someone or an organization that helps people (or animals) that you are interested in finding out more about. Remember to interview someone who is part of an organization that you would join yourself. It could be anything from a women's help center, UNICEF, or an organization like MIRA. The interview can be done on the phone or in person.

Your interview must contain information like:

- 1- The person's name and job title.
- 2- How long they have worked there?
- 3- What is the Organization about?
- 4- What recent events they have done for awareness?
- 5- Any other questions that you might come up with (at least 2).

Type up your project or write it in a clear format. If you have any problems finding ideas come see me and I will help you make a decision or give you information on where to look in order to contact people. Due date_____.

REMEMBER TO PICK SOMETHING YOU FIND INTERESTING!
